

myOLCF

A new self-service web application for
OLCF end-users

Adam Carlyle

Lead Engineer, Support Software

January 2020

What is myOLCF ?

- A new web application being deployed soon at the OLCF
- A self-service portal for OLCF principal investigators and end-users
- A replacement for site currently at <https://users.nccs.gov>
- <https://my.olcf.ornl.gov>

Goals for myOLCF

1. Help principal investigators and end-users make data-driven decisions about their OLCF projects
2. Reduce administrative burden on principal investigators and end-users resulting from OLCF project ownership or membership

Features

- Basic information about your Projects, Project Users, Allocations, etc.
- Status tracker for user account applications
- One-click PI approvals for pending user applications
- Easy project renewals for existing PIs
- Easy user account renewals for existing users
- Queryable reports and graphs for project metrics
- Role-based app permissions, controlled by PIs
